

NATIONAL Literacy and Numeracy WEEK

National Literacy and Numeracy Week is an Australian Government initiative that runs in partnership with state and territory governments. Warwick Farm Public School is celebrating our successful learning by inviting you to join us during the week.

What's happening?

Tuesday 5th September 2017
9-10:45am

Open classrooms Literacy or Numeracy

Parents please join your child's class and listen to your child read.

Thursday 7th September 2017
9-10am

Literacy & Numeracy Week Assembly in the hall

Principal Melanie Macmillan reading aloud Kindergarten singing an Aboriginal Lullaby 'Inanay Capuana'

Friday 8th September 2017
2pm

Book Parade - Escape to Everywhere

In the Cola

Dress as your favourite character and join our parade

